

Abi Rouge

Restaurant & Club — Athens, 58 Syngrou Ave — Since December 2025

Concept & Atmosphere

The night of December 26, 2025, marked the arrival of something entirely new at 58 Syngrou Avenue. As you step across the threshold, the city of Athens fades, replaced by a world steeped in deep, velvet reds and the soft, deliberate glow of amber light. Designed by the visionary firm of Kostas Gakgos, the space breathes with a cinematic pulse. A theatrical sanctuary that feels as though it has been plucked from the storied, late-night corners of Paris, London, and New York.

Here, every texture and shadow has been curated to cultivate an air of mystery and designed intimacy. At the heart of this experience stands the red horse, a symbol that serves as more than an emblem; it is a declaration of intent. It speaks of unwavering craftsmanship and a reverence for French culinary tradition, now reborn with a restless, modern soul. You are not merely entering a restaurant or a club; you are being invited into a narrative of elegance, where the old world meets the spirit of today.

Food, Drinks & Music

Food

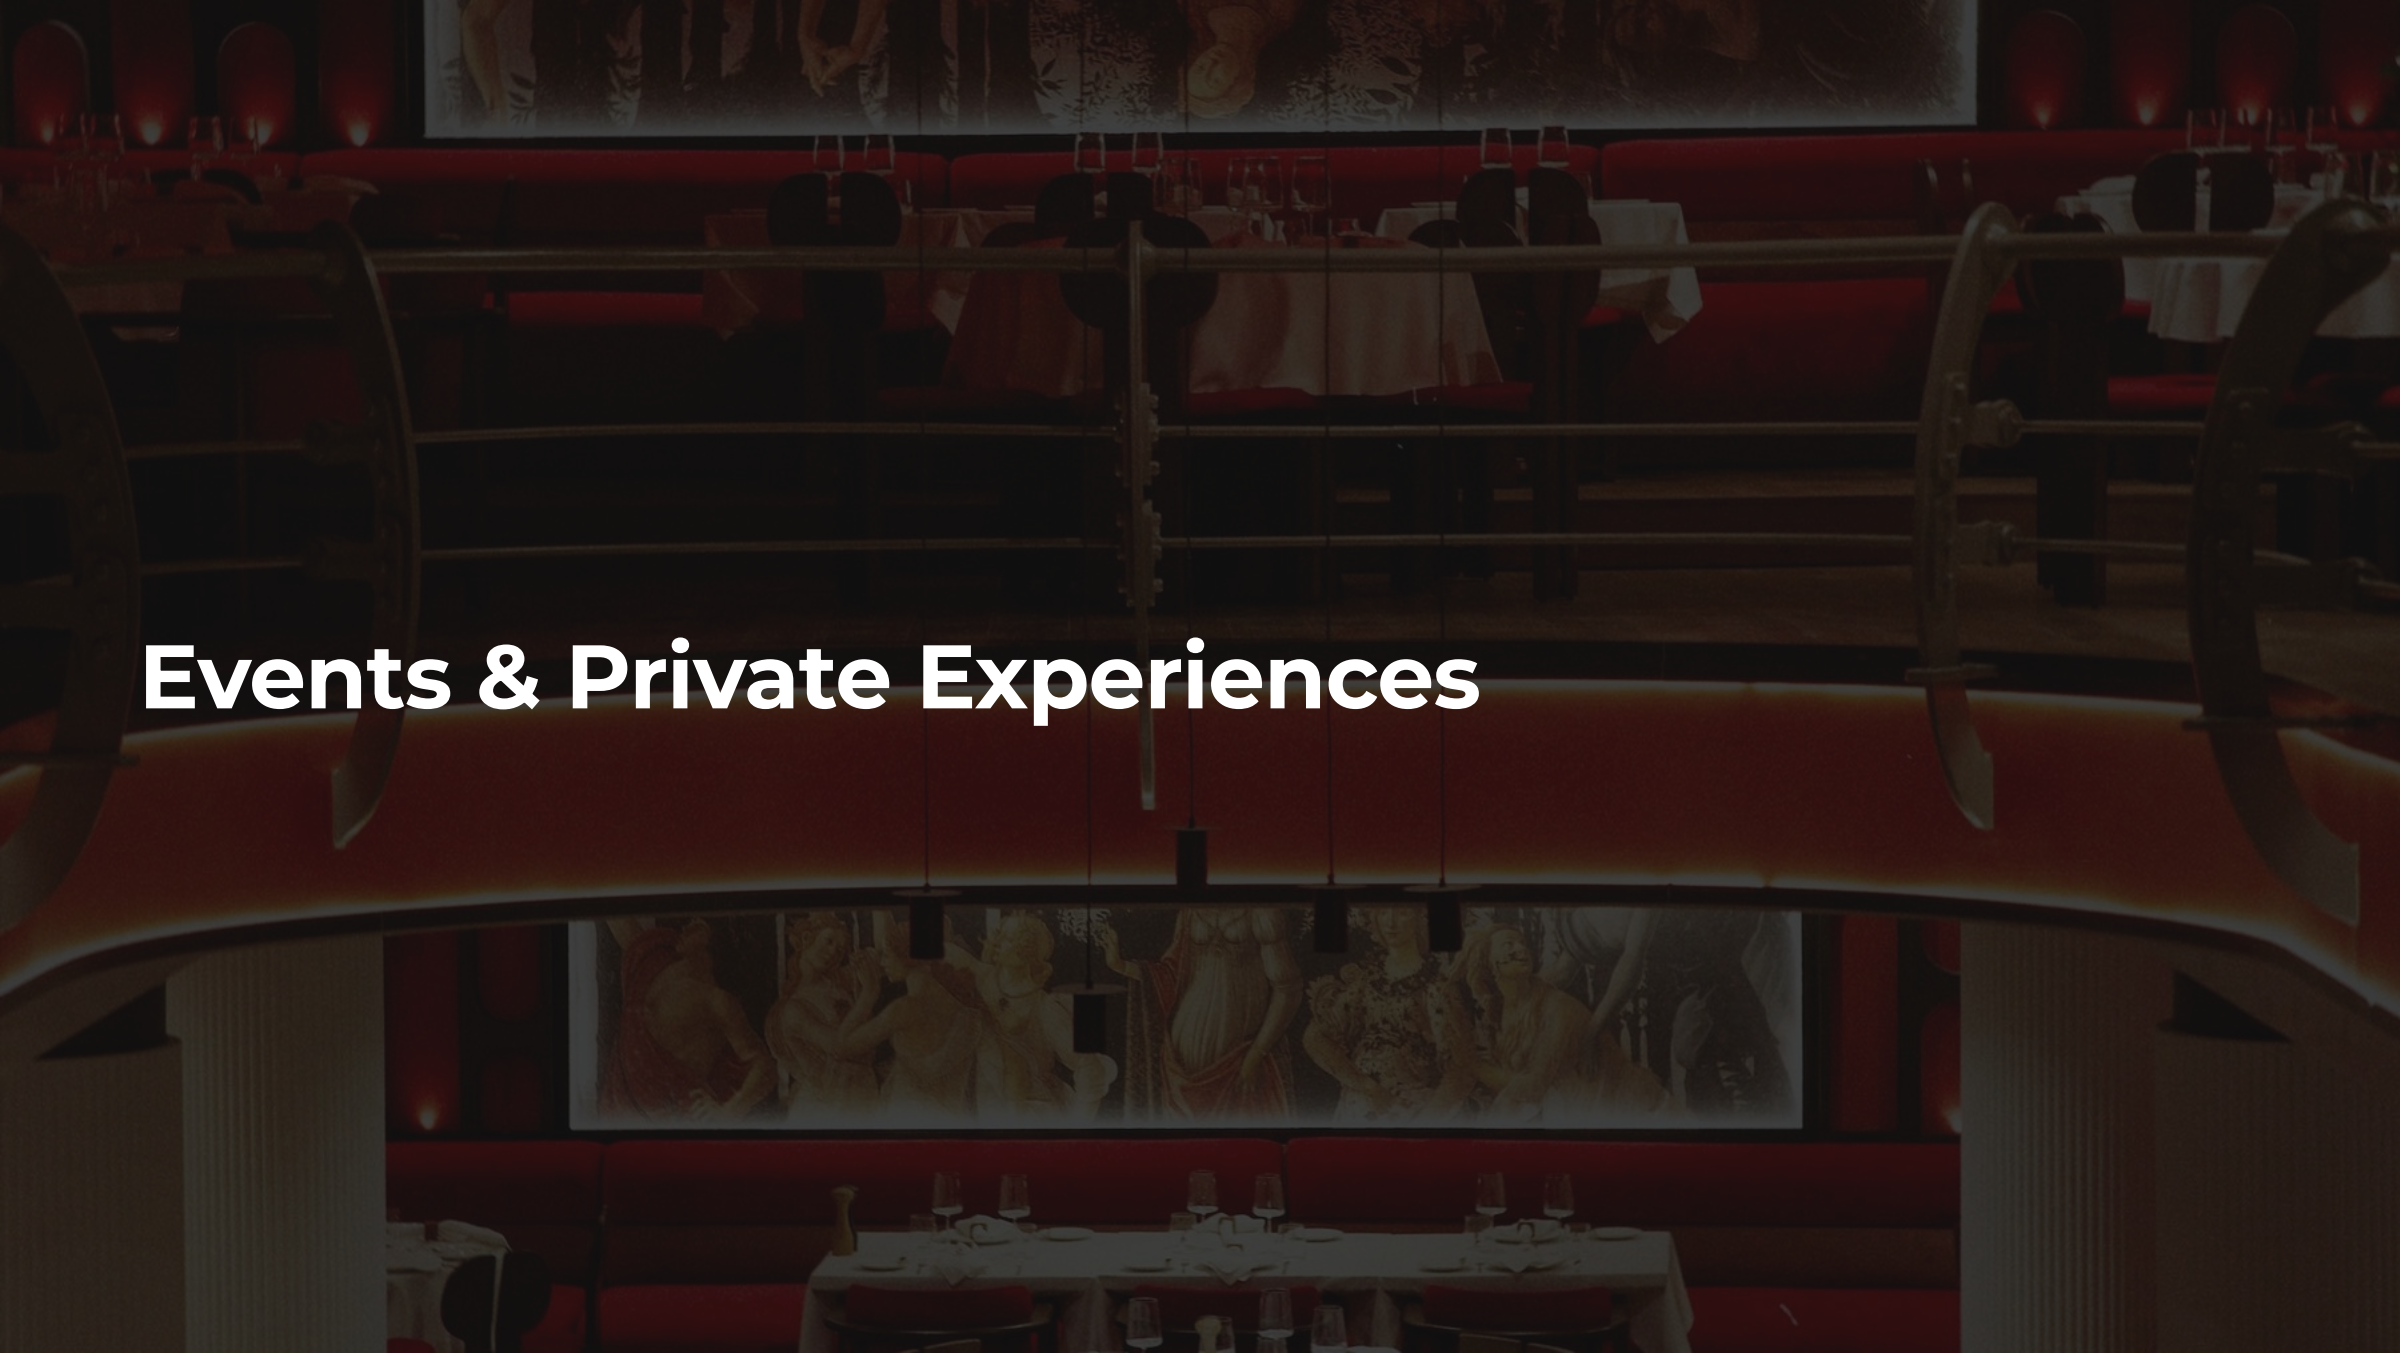

The menu is the work of Chef Themis Agnatos, whose approach draws from the depth of French culinary tradition while embracing contemporary international influences. Day-to-day execution is led by Chef de Cuisine Charis Georgiopoulos. Signature dishes include caviar, beef fillet with lobster, Dover sole meunière, beef tartare, scallop gratin, and black spaghetti with red shrimp tartare.

Drinks

The cocktail programme, crafted by Akis Papageorgiou, strikes a balance between modern mixology and understated elegance. The wine list, curated by Sommelier Spyros Spyropoulos, is anchored in the great French vineyards, complemented by a thoughtful selection of Greek and international labels.

Music

The evening opens with jazz, bossa nova, and soulful undertones — a natural companion to dinner. As the night matures, the music shifts toward refined disco and house, always responsive to the rhythm of the room.

The background image shows a sophisticated restaurant interior. In the foreground, a curved wooden railing with decorative finials separates the viewer from the dining area. Below the railing, a long table is set with white linens, glassware, and plates. The walls are a deep red, and a large classical painting is displayed on the wall. The lighting is warm and ambient, creating a refined atmosphere.
